Mike Scaviola Celebrates Retirement

On Sunday, June 3, Mike Scaviola was honored at a retirement party at Matteo's Restaurant in Watertown. Family, friends, and co-workers gathered to help celebrate his retirement from United Parcel Service after 36 years of hard work and dedication. Surprise guest was Senator Joan Hartley. Senator Hartley presented Mike with an official citation granted by the Connecticut General Assembly, congratulating him on his 36 "years of committed service to U.P.S., never missing a day" of work. As guest after guest asked what he planned to do now that he is retired, Mike answered with a smile, "Anything I want!"

Russell Lakotas Retires from Region 16

A smiling Russell Lakotas, head custodian at Algonquin School, retired on April 27 after 14 years with Region 16. God bless him with many happy and healthy years. Thanks for all you've done, Mr. Russ, and for all your conscientious efforts over the years.

Prospect Residents at Boston University

Michael J. Augelli, a resident of Prospect, has recently been named to the Dean's List at Boston University for the Spring semester. Boston University awarded degrees to 5,358 students in May 2007. Among the graduates was Tasia A. Jones, who received a B.F.A. in Theatre Arts. Boston University is the fourth largest independent university in the United States, with enrollment of more than 29,000 students in its 17 schools and colleges. The university offers an exceptional grounding in the liberal arts, a broad range of programs in the arts, sciences, engineering, and professional areas, and state-of-the-art facilities for teaching and research.
