

Prospect We All Love -

Transition

Louis J. Smith, or just Lou, as everyone called him, went to his eternal reward on Saturday, September 9, 2006. Lou was an active 75 years old and the husband of Eve Rozum Smith. Theirs was a love story that began in high school and ended only after 53 years of true happiness of marriage.

Lou was a retired SNET worker and a member of many organizations and a volunteer for a lot of worthy causes. He was faithful to his God, his Church, and to his community. A military funeral was held at St. Anthony's Church for him and an overflow crowd of friends was there to see him off on his journey to a better place. Eve's loss is Heaven's gain; God be with you, Lou!

Remember, if you have something worth the telling, we are only too happy to hear it. You can call me at 758-3182, fax a note to me at 758-7502 or email jgomez04@snet.net [Joseph L. Gomez is a poet, a freelance writer, and the author of Sarah Ann, The Story Of A Pioneer Woman.]

Democratic Town Committee to Host 3rd
Annual Lobster
Bake

The Prospect Democratic Town Committee will host its 3rd Annual Lobster Bake on Sunday, October 15. This year's event will be held at the Ancient Order of Hibernians Hall, 91 Golden Hill Street, Waterbury. Cocktails will be served from 5 to 6 p.m. from the cash bar. The buffet dinner will begin at 6 p.m. and will feature New England clam chowder, steamed clams, salad, potatoes, corn, roasted chicken, steamed lobsters and more.

The public is invited to attend this delightful autumn evening, not only to enjoy the delicious traditional New England food, but to also meet many of Prospect's local board and commission members. Guests will also have the opportunity to meet the state candidates vying for offices in this year's election.

Tickets are $45 each and may be purchased by contacting Theresa Graveline at 758-3055 or online at ucsc93@sbcglobal.net

Prospect Community
Blood Drive Set for October 6

The Prospect Community Blood Drive will be held at the Prospect Firehouse hall on Friday, October 6 from 8:45 a.m. to 7 p.m. The American Red Cross is in urgent need of blood. They have set a goal for this October drive at 215 pints, which means any eligible donor, 17 years of age or older and weighing at least 110 lbs., needs to come forward and make an appointment to donate the "Gift of Life."

You can make an appointment to donate by calling Ruby at 758-4956. If you get the answering machine, please leave your name, telephone number and time you'd like to donate and she will call you back to confirm your appointment. You may also call the American Red Cross directly at 1-800-GIVE-LIFE.

This October blood drive is a Memorial Blood Drive in loving memory of United States Army Sgt. Joseph M. Nolan. Sgt. Nolan lost his life in battle in Iraq, while fighting to protect our country. Sgt. Nolan's family lives in the East Mountain area of Waterbury.

The Knights of Columbus of St. Anthony's Church sponsored the last blood drive and we would like to thank them for stepping forward. A special thanks goes to John Reilly for organizing the drive and donating so much of his time.

Oliver's Supermarket will be co-sponsoring this October drive along with the Prospect Lion's Club. Oliver's is always willing to help out and supply a wonderful assortment of sandwiches to our staff and donors. We thank Len and Jim Noble for always being willing to lend a helping hand. And the Prospect Lion's Club members are also always ready and willing to lend a hand. Without the help of all of these wonderful volunteers, we would not have the successful blood drives that we have.

Many donors earned gallon pins at the last drive. Congratulations to the following individuals who earned the gallon pins noted: Bruce Loomis (13 gallons), Barbara Grenier (11), Richard Atchinson (11), Randy Below (9), Gwenn Fischer (7), David Kinney (6), John Guevin (5), Timothy Beach (5), Richard Gravel (3), Wendy Thornley (3), Gloria Santoro (3), Thomas Allen (2), Christopher Giordano (2), Stephanie Lusas (2), Ursula Hoxie (1).

Holiday Craft Fair in Middlebury

The Middlebury Ladies Auxiliary is seeking vendors who would like to display their hand-crafted goods at a Craft Fair to be held on Saturday, November 4. The event will take place at the firehouse hall on Tucker Road in Middlebury. Only a few spaces remain, so anyone interested in renting a space should contact Linda at 263-8240 as soon as possible.

State Representative Candidate 89th District

BETHANY • CHESHIRE • PROSPECT

Tim White was born and raised in Cheshire, Connecticut in a family active in veterans, Scouting, school and church groups. Tim White is an auditor at People's Bank.

Tim was first elected to the Cheshire Town Council in 2003, where he has successfully worked to keep town tax increases below two percent per year. He fought wasteful spending, found major cost savings for his town, and supported responsible, effective funding for schools.

Tim White is running for State Representative. "Prospect gets back less than fifty cents for every dollar it pays in State taxes. Prospect deserves its fair share ... we can do better."
