

COMPREHENSIVE WEALTH MANAGEMENT

YOUR PARTNER IN GROWING, MANAGING & PRESERVING YOUR WEALTH

JAMES W. COLEMAN

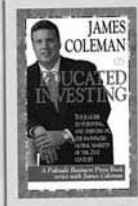

An independent wealth manager who understands your concerns with the resources to meet your needs.

Call 1-800-280-2399 and receive a copy of "Educated Investing" with your first appointment

Visit us at www.colemanadvisorygroup.com

Coleman Financial Advisory Group

James W. Coleman
"Connecticut's Own Financial Advisor"
Author of "Educated Investing"
Palisades Business Press

Profiled in Connecticut Magazine's
"BEST OF" edition Sept. 2005

60 Lakeside Blvd West
Waterbury, CT 06708
1.800.280.2399 • 203.756.7526

Securities offered through Securities America, Inc. NASD/SIPC James W. Coleman, Registered Representative, Advisory services offered through Securities America Advisors, Inc. James W. Coleman, Investment Advisor Representative. Coleman Financial Advisory Group & Securities America Company are non-affiliated.

Boy Scouts Prepare to Sell Poinsettias

You can help support the Prospect Boy Scout Troop 258 by purchasing a beautiful poinsettia plant for the holiday season. The Scouts will be selling the plants starting November 11 until December 2. The plants are florist quality and will definitely add beauty to your home or business. The sizes of the plants range from 4-1/2 inches, 6-1/2 inches, 10 inches and 12 inches and come in a variety of colors including red, white, pink or marble. If you are interested in purchasing a plant or two, please contact Carol Dietz at 758-3830. She will arrange a time for the Scouts to visit your business or home in town to provide further details about this fundraising event.

Cub Scouts Decorate Cake

The Cub Scouts of Pack 27 started off the new scouting year with their annual cake decorating contest. Here are the winners showing off their creations. Pictured here, l. to r. are, Jacob Mancini, Justin Fortin, Patrick Conway, Michael Mastrianna, Jesse Maslar, Matthew DiBlanda, Michael Palmerie, and Michael Gallagher. Congratulations, boys!

AAUW News

Four students currently attending the Waterbury Arts Magnet School will be guest speakers at the October 4 meeting of the Greater Waterbury Branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW). The program, starting at 7:15 p.m., will be held at the Prospect Library Community Room. The students are seniors at the school and are all members of the first class to graduate from the Magnet School. The public is invited to this program and are asked to enter through the door at the side of the building, since the library is normally closed on Wednesday evenings. Ample parking is available in that area.

Aluminum Tank Polishing • Decal & Letter Removal Fleet Truck Washing • Mobile Detailing Service

Patrick Muscillo
Owner/Operator

7 Days A Week
"The Detailers That Come to You!"

Pick-up & Delivery Also
Morning • Afternoon • Evening Appointments

HAND WASH • HAND WAXING

2-Step Cleaning / Polishing Paint

Buffing Light Scratches • Full Interior Shampooing

Full Detail: Hand wash, polish/wax, Tires cleaned & dressed, Interior shampoo, "seats, carpet, mats," dash, console, door panels, cleaned & dressed, glass cleaned. Trucks, SUVs, Mini Vans, slightly extra.

Full Interior & Exterior Detailing

Starting at $125

Author Alan Bisbort Guest Speaker at AAUW Meeting

The Greater Waterbury AAUW branch members held their annual meeting in the Waterbury Club recently. Joyce Kathan, President, presided over the business meeting. The slate of officers was presented by the nominating chairperson, Melba Membrino. The slate was voted upon and approved by those present.

The guest speaker was Alan Bisbort, writer, editor and researcher. He was joined by his wife,

Tracey O'Shaughnessy, feature writer for the Waterbury Republican/American. Tracey introduced him and shared in the discussion on how two busy writers work things out. Alan has authored 16 books of history, biography, social commentary and poetry. He has a weekly political column in the Hartford Advocate. Alan has worked for the Library of Congress since 1977. He is a co-author of a "The Nation's Library: The Library of Congress," the official guide for the Library's Bicentennial. As a freelance journalist, he is a regular contributor of the New York Times, Yale Environment Journal, Connecticut Magazine, Yale Medicine and others. His work has also appeared in the Washington Post, The Rolling Stone, The Los Angeles Times and The Washingtonian. One of his most popular creations has been his creation of 14 "Decks of Knowledge" cards (flash cards for adults) published by Pomegranate. Seen here in the photo are Melba Membrino, Chair, Alan and his wife Tracey and their son PJ was a special guest. Submitted photo

"Embracing a Higher Standard of Commitment to Provide Community Residential Care for Individuals with Special Needs"

PO BOX 7331
34 WATERBURY ROAD
PROSPECT CT 06712
203.758.3506 ext.205
203.758.0111 fax
tziogas.gil@snet.net

Grounded in Love

NOW HIRING FOR ALL SHIFTS IN PROSPECT & CHESHIRE

CORE VALUES

Our Core Values are anchored by a commitment: to care, to serve, to train, and to encourage.

Commitment to these Core Values will be our pledge, while a foundation of love will serve as our passion.

Are you a person who is interested in a noteworthy career, with real "feel good about yourself benefits"? Are you truly concerned about the welfare of others? Maybe you are someone who can make that difference. This kind of motivation doesn't just happen, it is cultivated. Yet these traits are essential ingredients to be effective in Human Services.

Have you ever considered a career in ... Human Services?

For this reason, GIL Foundation may be interested in hearing from YOU...