library itself will close at 3 p.m. The public is invited to view the luminous colored pencil works done by her students. Rita teaches colored pencil techniques at

Shown here is the colored pencil drawing entitled "Garden Faun" by Prospect resident and student Marianne Byrne. It is one of many drawings on display this month at the Prospect Library.

The Prospect Library will reopen for Saturday hours on September 2. However, the library will be closed on Labor Day, September 4. We will be glad to see our "Saturday regulars" once again.

Our summer programs were enjoyed by many and now it's time to turn our thoughts toward fall programs. Sign-ups for these programs will take place at the Library on Saturday, September 16 beginning at 10 a.m. sharp. You must come to the library to sign-up; no phone calls, please.

- Reading and Crafts Programs for 3 to 5-year-olds (please, no two-year-olds) will start on Tuesday, September 19 from 10:30 to 11:15 a.m. and continue until December 19.
- Reading and Crafts Seasonal Programs for 6 to 10-year-olds will take place on the following Tuesdays, after school from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.: before Halloween, 10-year-olds will offer two sessions, including Tuesday before Valentine's Day, February 13; and Tuesday before Easter, April 3.

Our Community Room at the Prospect Library will feature the work of the students of artist Rita Caldwell. There will be an Artist's reception on Saturday, September 9 from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Visitors should enter the library through the side door, since the Artspace, 1220 Waterbury Road in Cheshire. Rita has won two awards from the Colored Pencil Society of America (www.cpsa.org). The artists in this show range from beginners to students who have continued with colored pencil for four years. Come and view the exhibit and find out why these wonderful works are called "paintings."

Prospect Youth Service News

The Prospect Youth Service has some upcoming activities planned this month. On Friday, September 8, a Basic Self Defense for Everyone Course will be held at the Prospect Grange hall building. Instructor Troy Bond will teach basic moves on how to defend oneself. The course, open to adults and children, will cost $10 per person and will take place from 7 to 9 p.m. Participants should dress comfortably, wearing a t-shirt and sweats. You must sign-up and register by Wednesday, September 6 by calling 758-3142.

Now that school is back in session, Prospect Youth Service will be sponsoring a fall dance on September 29. The dance is for the fourth and fifth graders and will be held right after school until 5:30 p.m. There will be a dance at Long River Middle School the same night from 7 to 9:30 p.m. As always, permission slips will be sent home with your child and will need to be signed in order for them to attend the dance. Chaperones are also key to the success of these events, since without chaperones, the planned events cannot be held. Won't you consider volunteering your time?
