WITH THE PROSPECT PAGES

Prospect residents and swim team members Jack Pretto and Greg Cerrato competed in the YMCA National Championship Long Course Swimming at the University of Maryland in College Park last month. Even though they had the competition on their minds, they didn't forget to bring along their copy of The Prospect Pages.

The Accetura, Giusto, Piccolo and Rioux families of Prospect recently vacationed in Ogunquit, Maine. These ten "Maineiacs" had a ball. Pictured, l. to r., are Andrea, Carly, Mia, Kailyn (holding Dean), Carla, Casey, Sarah, Julia and Jeffrey.

Florida has always been a popular vacation spot, especially in and around the Disney World area. These two photos show families who enjoyed a summer vacation to that spot of America.

After living in Prospect for 12 years, the Bazan family finally got the chance to take The Prospect Pages on vacation with them and get a photo of their vacation. Nicholas Bazan, age 10 and Patrick Bazan, age 8, traveled to Florida in June and met up with cousin Mike, age 9 in the center, when they all had the chance to visit Epcot Center.

Hello Mickey! That's what Brooke Leshin said when she and the Frenette girls traveled to Disney World in Florida last month with their families. Pictured here with their copy of The Prospect Pages are, l. to r., Kaitlyn Frenette, Brooke Leshin, and Mackenzie and Chelsea Frenette.

The Donnelly family of Prospect took a trip to Minnesota to visit mom Mary's family. One of the side trips was to visit the famous Mall of America with one of their uncles and two cousins. The family made sure that The Prospect Pages made the trip, because it contained a picture and birth announcement of the newest Donnelly member, little Erin.

Brooke Forsman of Prospect enjoys the sights of Niagara Falls from the Canadian side in July while holding a copy of her favorite hometown newspaper, The Prospect Pages. Brooke is nine years old and is in the fourth grade at Community School. She is also a proud member of Girls Championship team, The Rockets.
