The Prospect Historical Society invites the public to its first ever Airing of the Quilts event. Quilts from the 19th century and early 20th century, previously owned by one of the founding families of Prospect, will be on display at the Hotchkiss House museum, 61 Waterbury

Prospect Congregational Church Fall Festival

Prospect Congregational Church will be sponsoring an Old Fashioned Country Fair on Saturday, September 23 on the Prospect Town Green. There will be food, vendors selling crafts and businesses promoting their wares. There will also be a pie baking contest, as well as a large kids corral featuring a game area.

Live entertainment will be ongoing throughout the day, finishing up with a country concert featuring the Trail Riders. Food will be available all day and at the end of the day, a chicken barbecue will be enjoyed. Proceeds from the fair will be used to establish a scholarship for a college-bound youth and for the many repairs needed within the church.

Anyone wishing to set up a tent to sell or showcase their business is invited to contact the organizers. For more information, visit the church website at www.prospectctucc.org and click on "Fall Festival." You can also call the church office at 758-4872 or Rick at 758-5352.

Eat & Enjoy While Raising Money for Park by Veronica Boulden

Take your family to dinner at Prospect's Senor Pancho's on Cheshire Road this September 17. From 4 to 8 p.m. on that day, a percentage of your tab will go towards the new playscape at Canfield Park. You can call the restaurant ahead of time at 758-7788 to make reservations or you can just walk in. Before you are seated, make sure to tell the hostess you'd like to participate in the Canfield Playground Fund Raiser. You can then order and eat your meal. When you finish, simply give your receipt to Gail Yacavone, a Coordinator for the fund raising event. At the end of the night, Gail will add up the receipts and Senor Pancho's will give her twenty percent of the total to put towards the new playground equipment. In the future, every time you and your family use the new playground, you'll be getting a small portion of your expenses back. So go, eat, enjoy and help raise money for Canfield Park.
